

Udo Hansen

German Federal Police

Chief of regional Headquarter

Panel Session:

“European Border Protection“

Wednesday, January 30th, 14:30-16:30

Curriculum vitae

born: 12 September 1952

The regional headquarter east in Berlin employs 11.000 officers and civil servants and is responsible in the german countries Berlin, Brandenburg and Saxonia for the tasks of:

- border police
- airport security
- railway police
- security of the constitutional organisations

Job experience:

- professor at the college of public administration
- deputy chief of GSG 9, a special unit to fight against terrorism and organized crime
- head of the department responsible for the border police at the ministry of interior
- head of border police at Frankfurt airport
- since 25 June 1999 chief of regional headquarter in Berlin