

Mathias Kaldenhoff

Oracle

Director Sales Fusion Middleware

Panel Session:

“An Information Model for European Police Forces“

Tuesday, January 29th, 11:30-13:30

Curriculum vitae

Mathias Kaldenhoff, Director Sales Oracle Fusion Middleware Germany, is working as functional leader for the whole middleware stack at Oracle Corp. since 2007. His main responsibility in middleware is german sales but is also responsible for any information exchange and IT-strategy in collaboration with Oracle development (U.S.) and Oracle Product Management (U.S.).

Mr. Kaldenhoff joined Oracle Corp. in 1997 after several operational positions at german retailers. He started his career at Oracle as Business Consultant for Telecommunications, Media and Utilities and was appointed to Manager System Engineering(PreSales) for this line of business in 2000. And in addition for Consumer and Retail in 2002 before he was officially nominated Director PreSales XloB for northern Germany in 2006.

He engaged in the acquisition and understanding of complex business cases at customer and partner sites, positioning of IT-Architecture as well as Solution Strategy through all management levels and was responsible for aligned delivery of technical expertise for all kind of business process engineering.

Since today he performed several publications and oral presentations especially in mobile and grid computing and is responsible for several technical reference architectures all through Europe especially in all questions of public management

Mr. Kaldenhoff was born in Hannover (Lower-Saxony) , Germany in 1959. He holds a master degree in science of literature and diplomas in communication programming and commercial information technology. He lives with his wife and three of his five children near Hamburg.