

Heinz Kiefer

Eurocop
President

Speech:

“Security in Europe“

Tuesday, January 29th, 18:00-19:00

Curriculum vitae

Heinz Kiefer was born in 1948 in Germany and joined the police force in 1967. One year later he joined the German Police Union.

At present he is the President of The European Confederation of Police, EuroCOP.

He was elected onto the EuroCOP Executive Committee in October 2002 and became the EuroCOP President in September 2003. In November 2007 he was re-elected as the President of EuroCOP at the EuroCOP Congress which took place in Brussels.

During his time as President of EuroCOP he has been very active working on improving the working conditions of the police in Europe, travelling all across Europe talking directly to policing officials and politicians, including local media.

Heinz Kiefer is also the Vice President of the German Police Union, Gewerkschaft der Polizei (GdP). He has been in office for 24 years.