

Colonel Dominique Lapprand

Strategic Research Centre of French Gendarmerie
Commander

Panel Session:

“Policemen of the Future
Capability Management, Human Resources, Technical Aspects”

Wednesday, January 30th, 14:30-16:30

Curriculum vitae

Currently in charge of the French gendarmerie strategic research centre (Centre de prospective de la gendarmerie nationale), Colonel Dominique LAPPRAND has completed various junior and senior management assignments in the gendarmerie over 25 years mainly in public safety and criminal investigation. He had been seconded for three years to the french ministry of Justice Criminal justice directorate. Since 1998 he has been working as an expert on behalf of the European Commission being a full time national expert on secondment from 2001 until 2005. A graduate from the Saint Cyr military academy he is a Bachelor in law and graduated both from the gendarmerie senior staff course and from the FBI national academy. He holds a master degree in organisational sociology.