

Peter Mölls

Siemens
Senior Consultant

Panel Session:

“Digital Europe: Identification Systems RFID, Biometrics, Identification-Systems”

Tuesday, January 29th, 11:30-13:30

Curriculum vitae

Peter Mölls, born in 1966, finished his apprenticeship as a technician in electronics before he studied telecommunication engineering at the University of Applied Sciences in Duesseldorf, Germany. He started his Siemens Career in 1995 as an expert advisor in the telecommunications department. Since 1999 he is working at Siemens as senior consultant, mainly responsible in the area of Command Control Centers, Contact Centers and Interactive Voice Response Solutions