

Rainer Wendt

Deutsche Polizeigewerkschaft (DPolG)
Chairman

Panel Session:

1. “Surveillance and Reconnaissance Systems for Police Forces“

2. „The Berlin Declaration“

Curriculum vitae

50 years old, married, four children

Commercial school, A-level achieved at night school, studied at the University of Duisburg and at the University of Applied Science for Public Management in Duisburg, Diploma in Administration, police officer in North-Rhine Westphalia since 1973, police chief inspector, chairman of the Deutsche Polizei Gewerkschaft DpolG (the German Police Officers' Union), member of the Police Staff Council at the Interior Ministry of NRW, chairman of the German Police Officers' Union since September 2007, member of the Federal Head Board of the German Civil Servants' Union (Deutscher Beamtenbund), chairman of the Committee for Interior Security of the German Civil Servants' Union (Expertenkommission für Innere Sicherheit des Deutschen Beamtenbundes)